

View this email in your browser

EXECUTIVE FORUM

March 4th - 6th | Livingston, MT

Shane Lalani Center for the Arts

Municipal leadership brings new challenges at every stage. The Executive Forum, designed for both new and seasoned mayors, city managers, and chief administrators, offers practical tools, peer insight, and timely conversations on the issues shaping Montana communities.

Review our DRAFT AGENDA for more details. Below are just a few of the sessions we have planned:

Legislative Interim Update & Upcoming Priorities

An overview of recent legislative outcomes, the League's interim

Under Pressure: Threats Against Public Officials

A timely panel with Montana law enforcement leaders examining the modern risk landscape facing public officials, with emphasis on situational awareness, decision-making, and maintaining public trust.

Emergency Management Modernization Listening Session

Learn about Montana Disaster and Emergency Services' modernization efforts and share input on future priorities and investments.

Department Head Performance Reviews

Practical guidance and shared lessons on conducting effective department head evaluations lead by MMIA's Human Resource Consultant and a panel of seasoned City Managers.

If you're looking for relevant insight, real-world examples, and conversations that matter, the Executive Forum delivers.

REGISTER NOW and make sure to reserve your lodging early.

Room blocks are limited and will be closing soon:

Murray Hotel (call 406-222-1350) - Room block ends 1/30

Home2Suites (book online) - Room block ends 2/10

Fairfield by Marriot (book online) - Room block ends 2/19

Already registered? Additional information can be found in your confirmation email.

REGISTER NOW

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▼

Our mailing address is:

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe